

A QUIZ FROM THE BOOK OF PROVERBS

1. Which do you choose? (15:17)
  - A. A house of love--where you may be too poor to have meat on the table
  - B. Luxuries, like sirloin steak--but hatred is served there, too.
2. Which do you choose? (15:16)
  - A. A lot of money--mixed with chaos, confusion, busy-ness and running around
  - B. A very modest lifestyle--where God is a real priority and people are devoted to Him.
3. Which do you choose? (16:8)
  - A. Living in a way that pleases God (but having only a little)
  - B. A lot of money--even if you have to do a little cheating to get it.
4. Which is better? (16:19)
  - A. To be humble and have friends from the lower class
  - B. To have many possessions--and proud (arrogant) friends
5. Which would you rather be? (16:32)
  - A. A person who has self-control and is slow to anger
  - B. A mighty, powerful person
6. Which would you rather have? (17:1)
  - A. A very modest meal--eaten in peacefulness and quietness
  - B. A real feast--with arguing and fighting
7. Which would you rather be? (19:22)
  - A. A rich man--who tells a few lies now and then
  - B. A poor man--who tells the truth
8. Would you rather live: (21:9)
  - A. In a nice house with an argumentative, nasty person
  - B. In a tiny, cramped one-room apartment with a sweet-tempered mate
9. Would you rather live: (21:19)
  - A. In a place with a hot, dry, unpleasant climate but a pleasant mate
  - B. In a nice climate with an annoying and quarrelsome mate
10. Which behavior is more desirable? (27:5)
  - A. Communicating openly and honestly--even if it involves rebuke
  - B. Concealing your feelings--even if it is your love for someone
